Old buildings, or brand new, the campus can offer sights, sounds, and experiences in learning that are timeless.

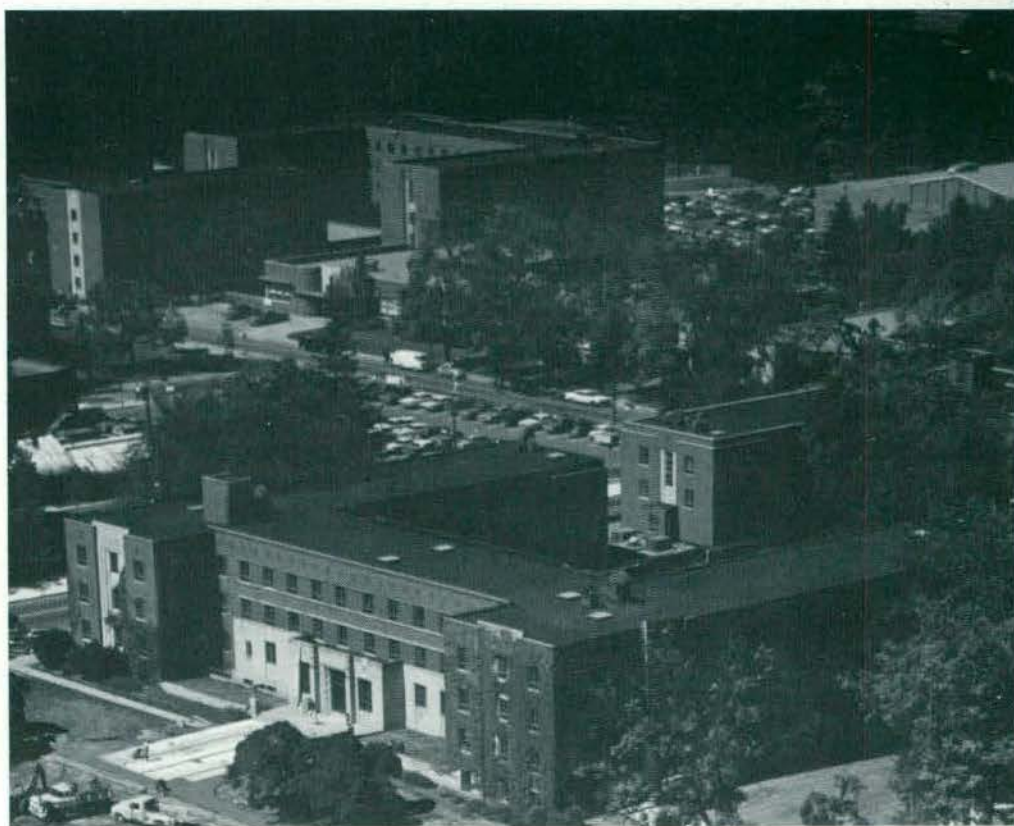

*Day or night . . .
The Campus lives*

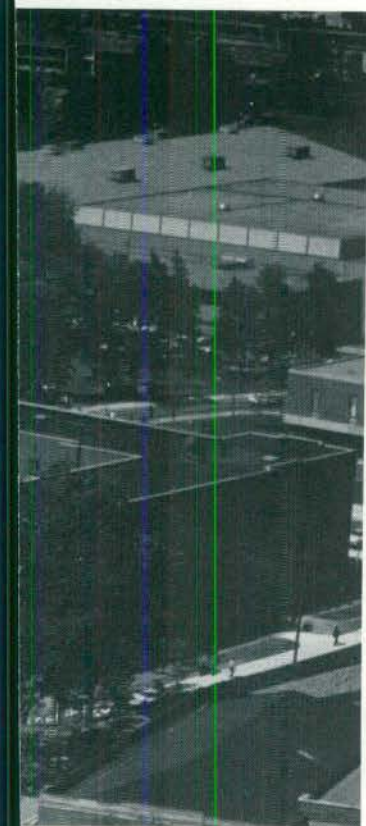

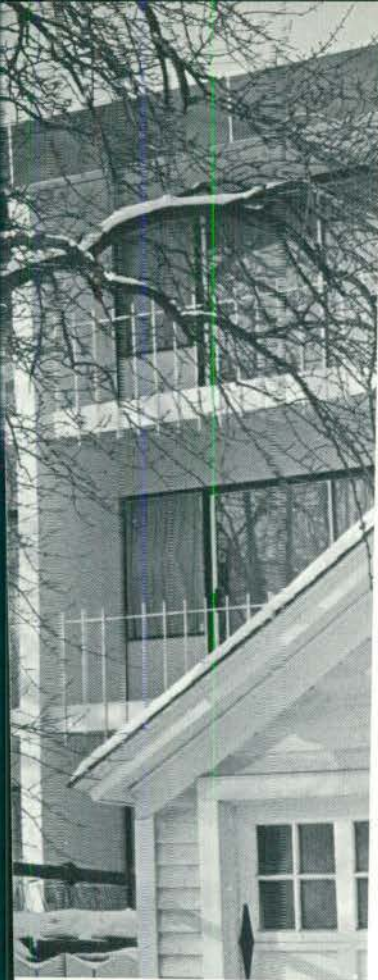

There are many different ways to suit the average student's taste in living accommodations around the campus of Eastern Michigan University. Whether it be University residence hall living, or luxury apartment, fraternity house or groovy loft with only the bare necessities, every student has only to look around him to find what he wants. While the University assures quiet living and balanced meals, the off-campus apartment life guarantees an education in self-discipline and economy as well as a feeling of being "out from under," whatever that may be.

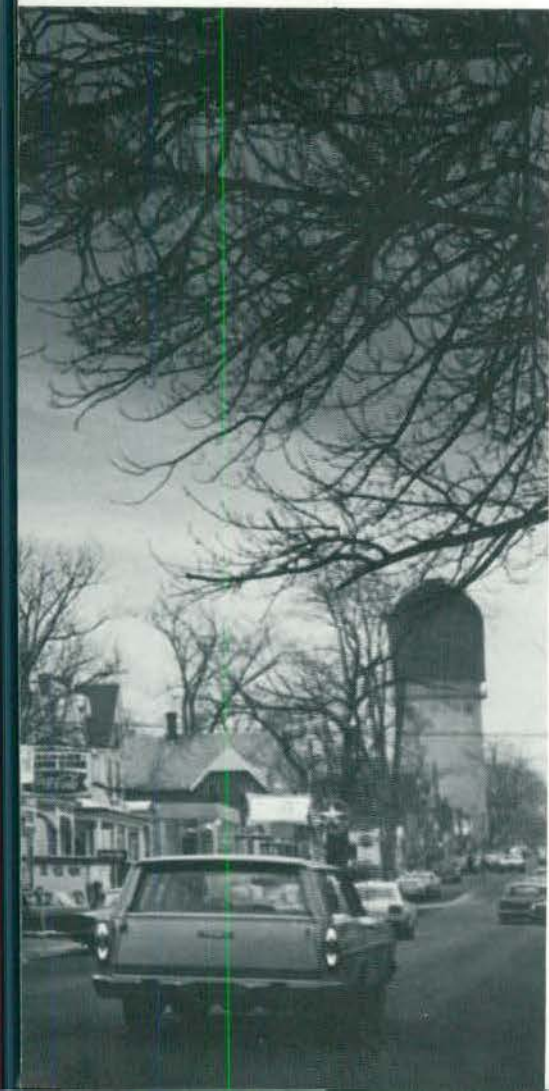

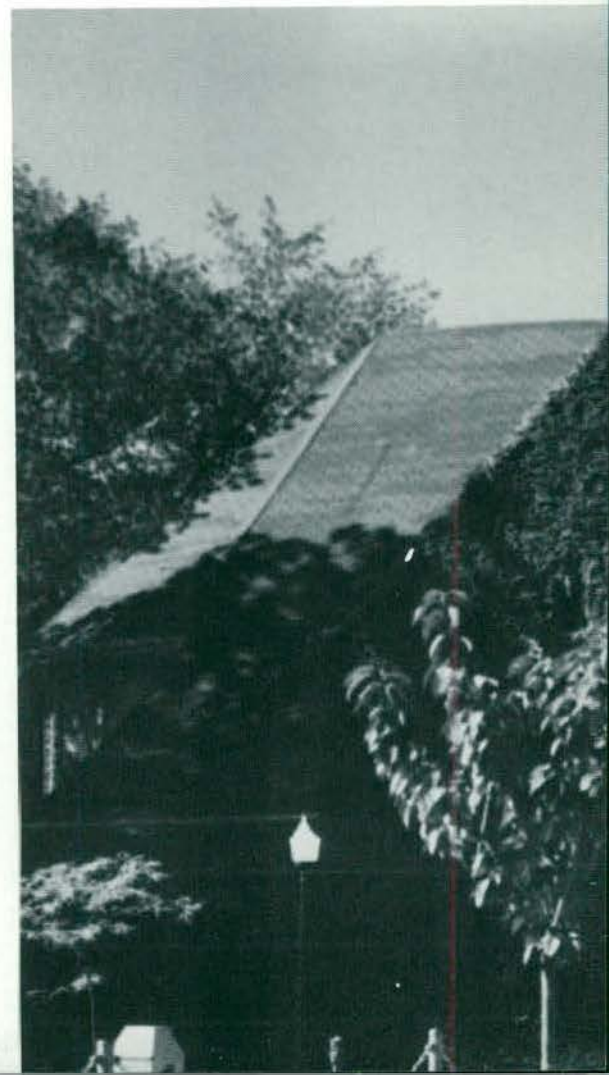

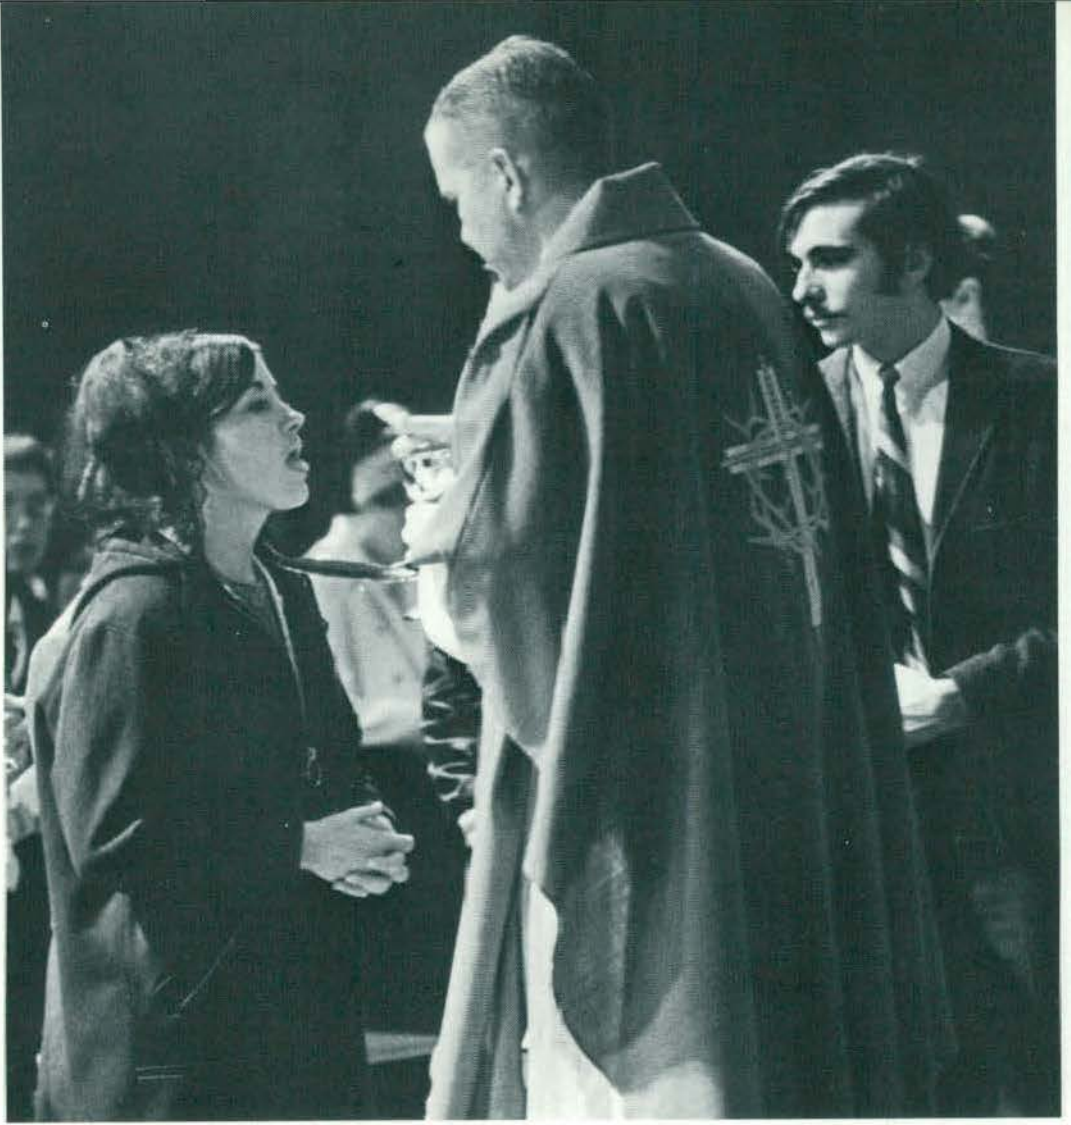

*Whether it's a midnight coke or lunch at noon,
Cashing a check or depositing cash,
A hair cut for guys or a hair piece for girls,
Cross Street is a vital part of the university community.*

Student Life . . . the evolution of an individual who learns to perceive and to be, to seek and to grow—emotionally, socially, and even academically.

EVENTS

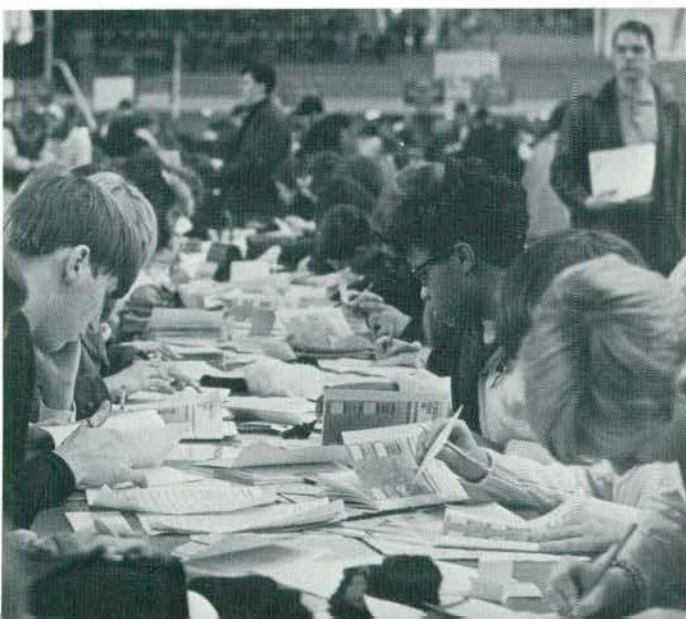

A student's life begins to expand the moment he or she arrives on campus. Whether it be a handsome fraternity man who is helping you move in, or a swinging coed with her guitar, there are things in New Student Days to get everyone off to a good start.

NEW STUDENT DAYS

REGISTRATION

Once every semester the students march to Bowen Field House in an attempt to preregister for the coming semester. Anarchy? No, but a hint of what could happen every day with out a college education.

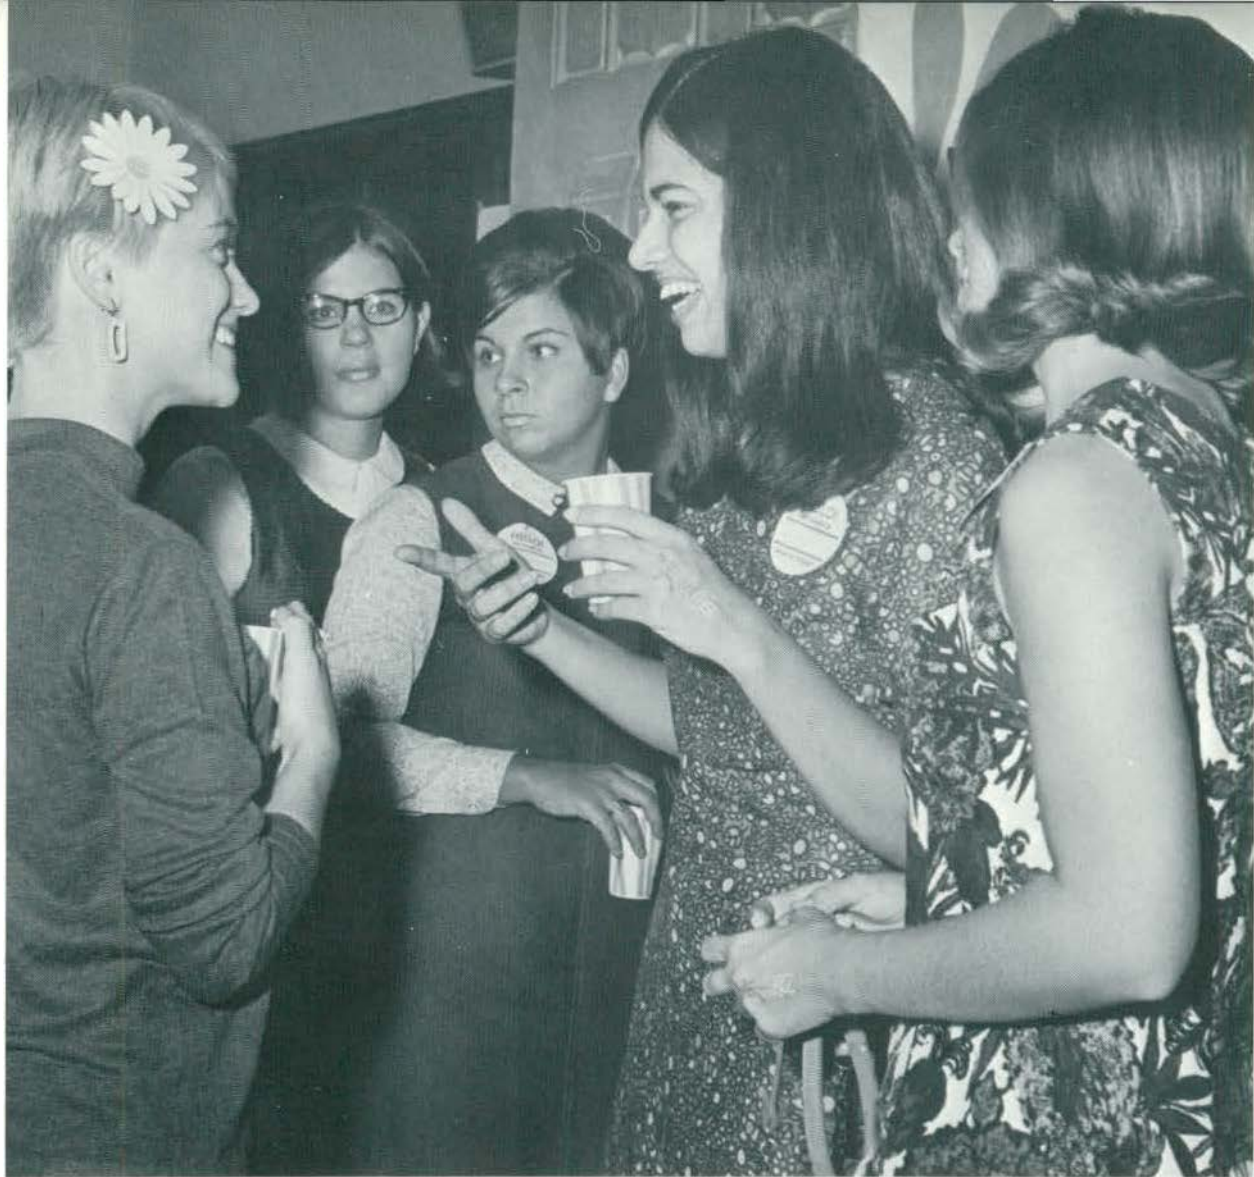

RUSH

Twice a year, the men and women of Eastern Michigan University have their chance to take a first hand look at fraternity and sorority life on Eastern's campus. In turn, each fraternity and sorority have an opportunity to display their wares; thus, rush is underway. Beginning with teas, informal chats, and friendly get-acquainted parties, rush swings into an all-out quest for the right man or woman. It is a time when many freshmen and sophomores come to know new faces and make lasting friendships.

HOMECOMING

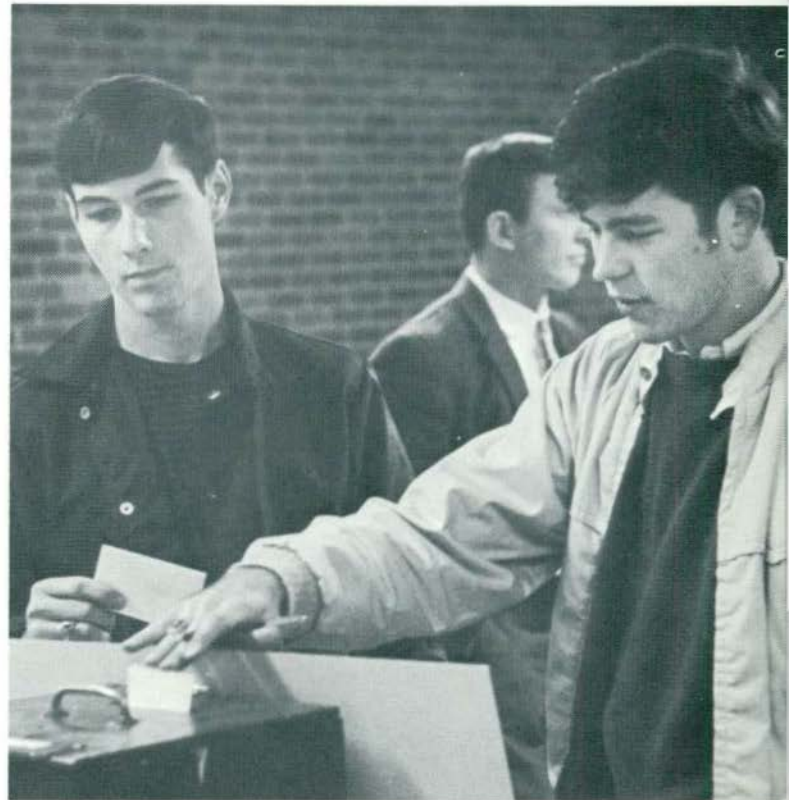

Homecoming spirit is reflected across campus in many ways; freshman girls will be adjusting their green bows one last time before throwing them into the break-out bonfire; Theta Chi's add final touches to part of their float; and one of Eastern's lively cheerleaders leaps high above the flames of the bonfire to help kick off a highly spirited weekend.

During Homecoming, Eastern's campus came alive with the sights and sounds of the Circus as almost every residence hall and organization put on their own Circus theme. King, Downing, and Phelps-Sellers all put on fine displays of Homecoming spirit with their decorations in front of the residence halls. Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and Jones residence hall had winning floats in the homecoming parade.

Broadcasting

LOUIS ARMSTRONG

Only Louis Armstrong can sound like the man that started it all, way back when, and that's because he is that man. What more can be said than the story of how he takes out his golden horn and turns on his audience. This was the whole story once again when he was on campus in Pease Auditorium.

SPEAKERS ON CAMPUS

Two speakers appeared on Eastern's campus in the fall, and both spoke of the life situations of the black man of America. While Dick Gregory added much humor to his presentation and left his enlightened audience in good spirits, the Reverend Albert Cleage did not. Speaking in earnest, he told of an alarming situation in racial relations that must be solved, or else. The two speakers left their audiences with much different presentations and reactions.

73

THE NEW FOLK

The New Folk, exciting new singing group, performed at Eastern and were well received. Mixing old spirituals with the new folk-rock sound they presented a very well rounded concert that was as fresh and invigorating as it was meaningful.

74

The Strawberry Alarm Clock

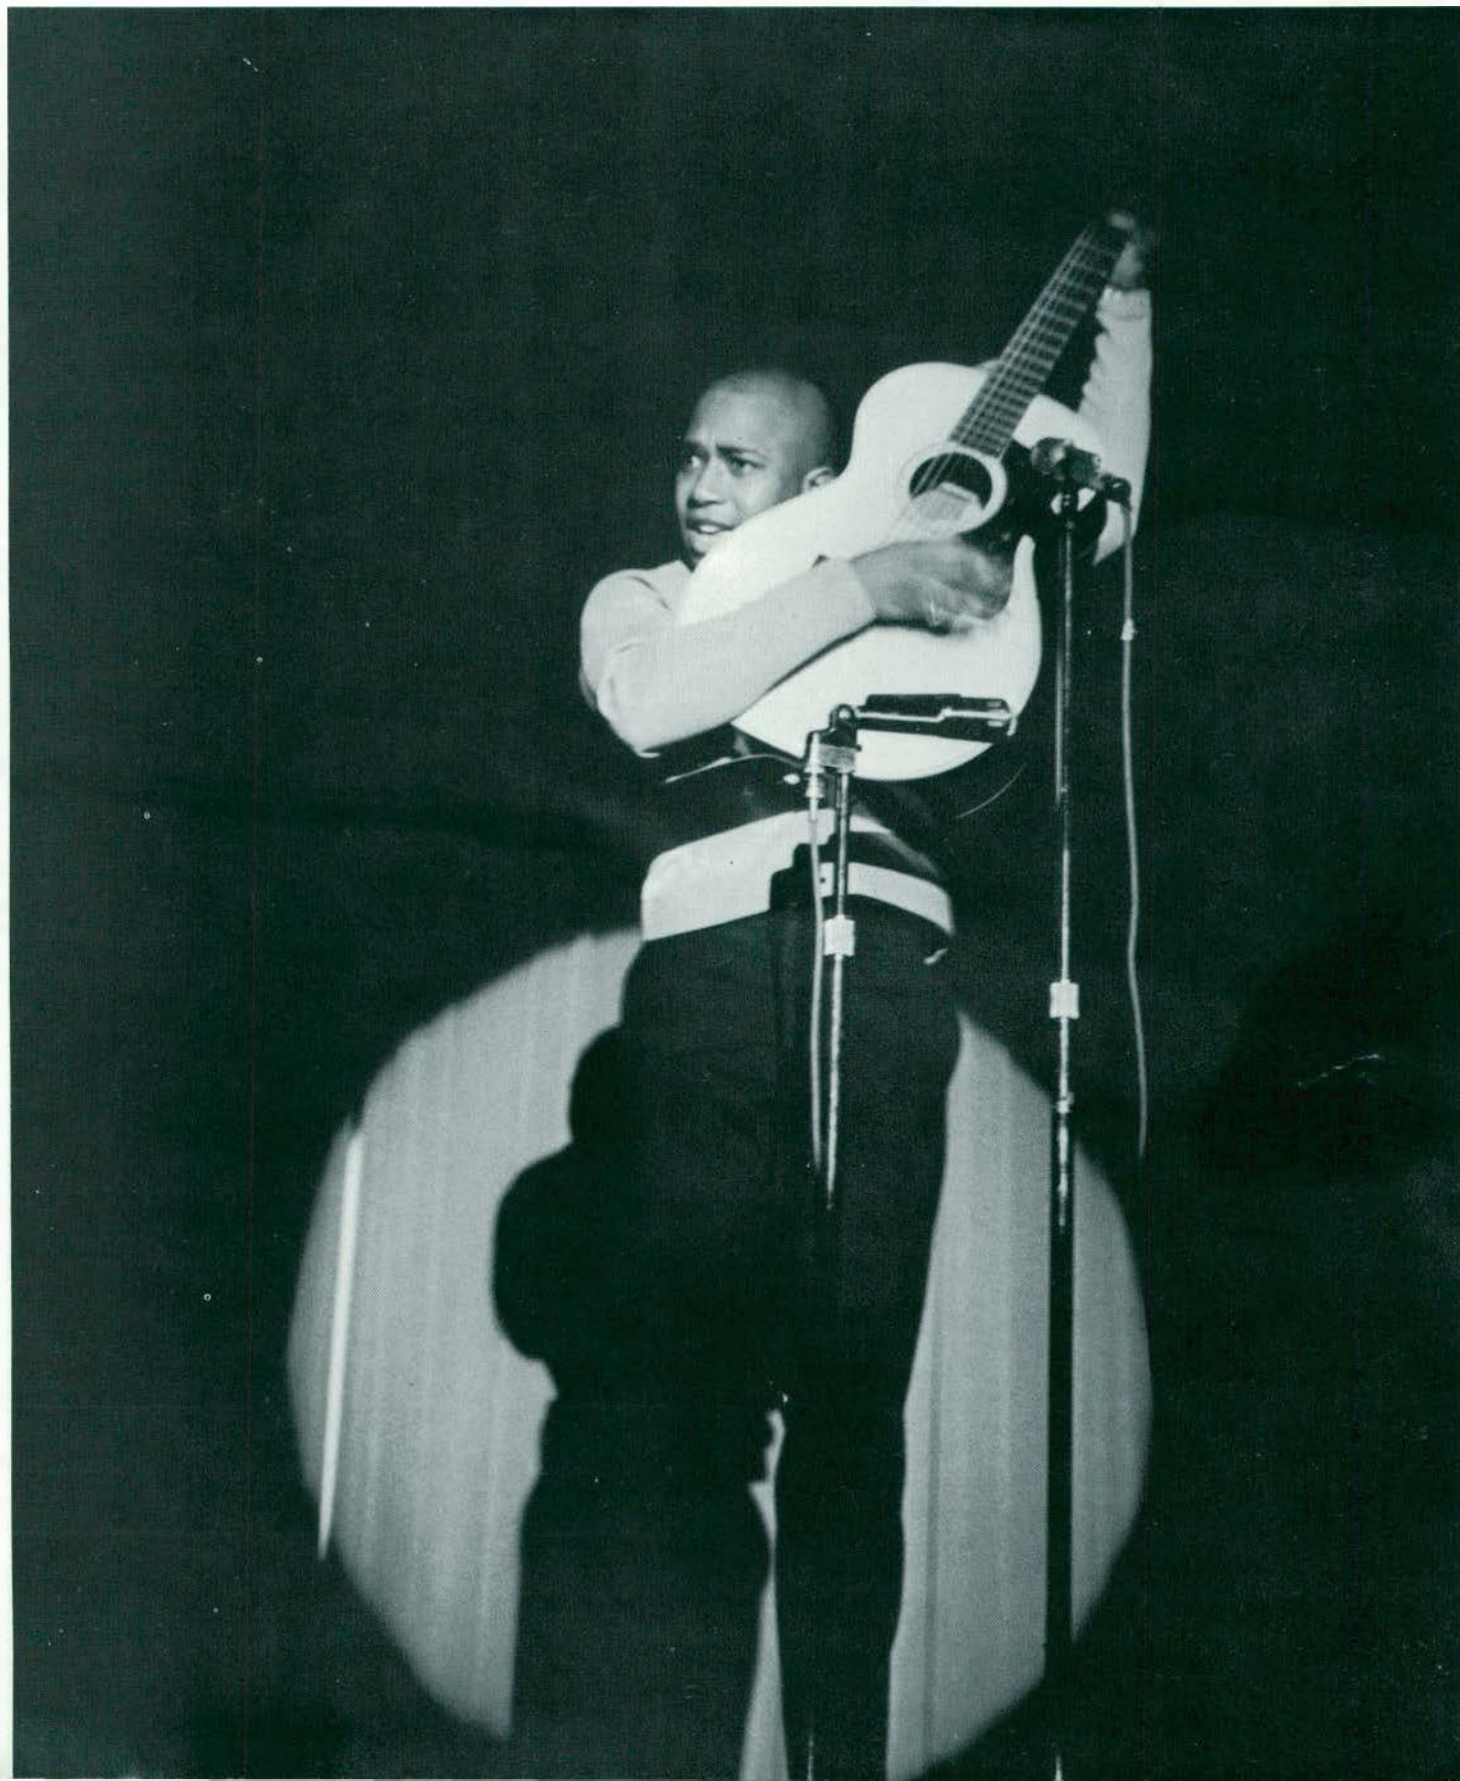

The Strawberry Alarm Clock performed before a "full house" on Saturday, March 2. The Alarm Clock, along with the Gents, a Detroit-area group were sponsored by the University Activities Board and WHUR radio station. Despite difficulty with the Public Address system the audience showed much enthusiasm throughout the performance. At the end of their concluding piece they received a standing ovation

CHRISTMAS SING

The 1968 Christmas Sing has to be acclaimed as one of the most exciting in the memorable past. Held in Bowen Field House, there was the opportunity to present more imaginative presentations for the large and enthusiastic audience which attended. Distinctly one of the highlights of the show was the presentation of a traditional and Motown version of "White Christmas", excitingly done by the men of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. Although there was no snow outside, this program did much to bring the Christmas spirit to campus.

BROOMBALL SPARKS WINTER CARNIVAL ACTIVITIES

Highlighting the activities of the 1968 Winter Snow Carnival were the outdoor sports and the Snow Queen Contest. In the broomball competition, the winning fraternity was Kappa Phi Alpha while the overall trophy was claimed by Sigma Sigma Sigma. A new added attraction in the broomball contest was the competition between women. The winning female team was Jones Hall. Reigning over these activities as Snow Queen was Miss Linda Roberts, a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority.

Snow Ball

High-point of the week-long Winter Carnival was the Snow Ball on Friday, February 16th. Linda Roberts, sponsored by Theta Chi, was crowned as Winter Carnival queen reigned over the dance and final festivities on Saturday. She also represented Eastern in the state-wide Winter Carnival at Northern Michigan University, February 23—24. Comprising her royal court were Chickie O'Hanisain, Mary Lou Paxton, Gretchen Klein, Sheila Dietz, and Esther Johnson who won their positions after performing in a talent show at Pease Auditorium which was judged by a three member faculty team. The trophy for the best beard in the Beard Growing Contest was also awarded at the dance.

Military Ball

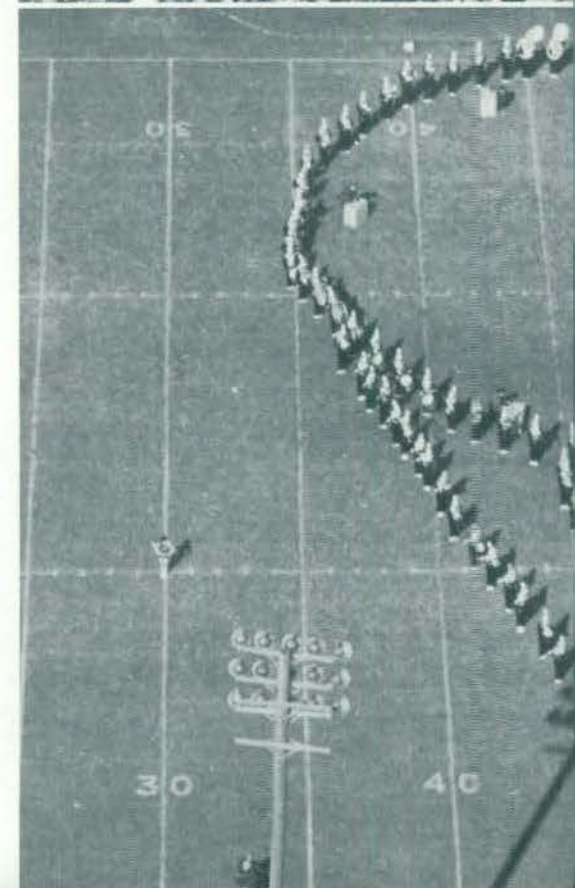

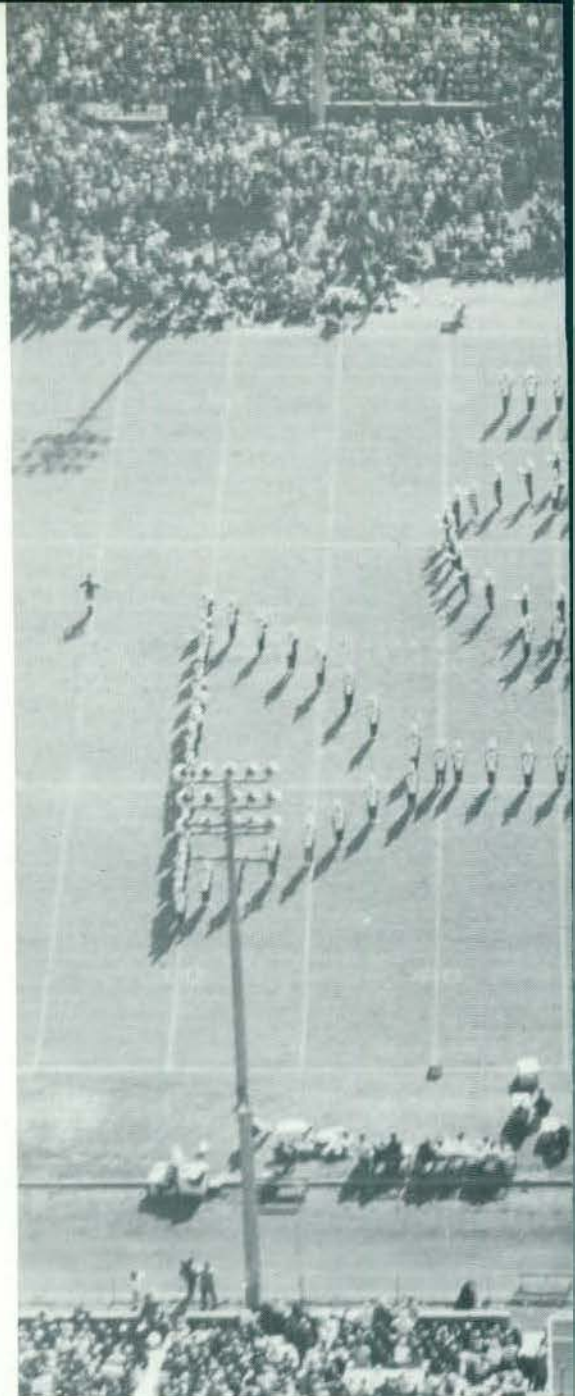

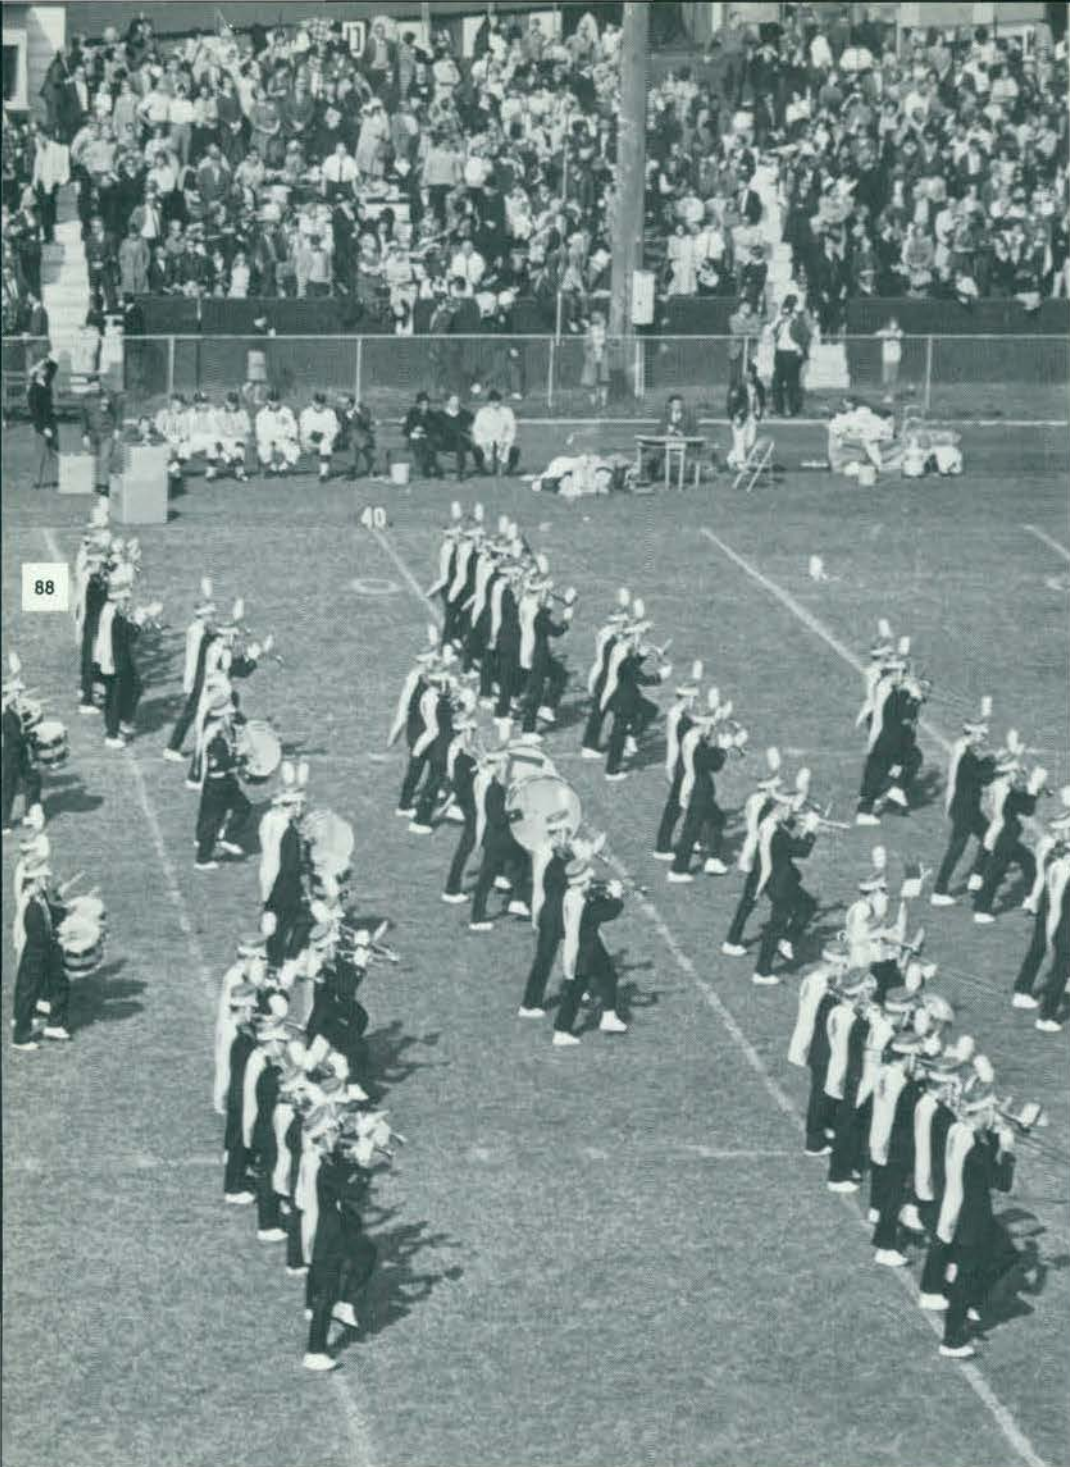

Naida Samson reigned as Honorary Cadet Colonel at this year's Military Ball on March 2nd. Five finalists for the title were selected by the Scabbard and Blade Society, and the entire ROTC Brigade made the final choice. 'Cadet' Samson was sponsored by Jones Hall. Her court and their sponsors were Linda Duvall, Wise Hall; Nan McCabe, Alpha Xi Delta; Betty Peak, Goodison Hall; and Paula Weiermiller, Tau Epsilon Phi. Theme for the ball, sponsored by the Scabbard and Blade Society, was "Rhapsody in Blue." Attending couples danced to the music of the seventeen piece Phi Mu Alpha Jazz Ensemble.

ACADEMICS

ADMINISTRATION ■ COLLEGES

Pre-student teaching programs at Eastern Michigan University present the student with the opportunity to crystalize his interest in the teaching profession before he actually goes into the student teaching program. Working with junior-high school students at a fresh air study session for a week or two gives each Eastern student the chance to use his or her initiative and judgement which is so important in day by day teaching.

Dr. Francis Daly, Head, Department of Education

The student teaching program at Eastern Michigan University gives its students the practical experience necessary for their training as teachers. Daily, they teach under supervision at area schools and prepare for certification and a full-time teaching career.

Frank Wawrzasek, acting head, Special Education

Every child is gifted in his own way. In order that there be no child that does not learn to be what he can be, no child that cannot play, no child that cannot grow, many of the men and women of Eastern Michigan University are training to become teachers in special education, a much needed profession. The facilities at Rackham Building are busy from dawn to dark with all that can be done to help local children as well as train fine new teachers.

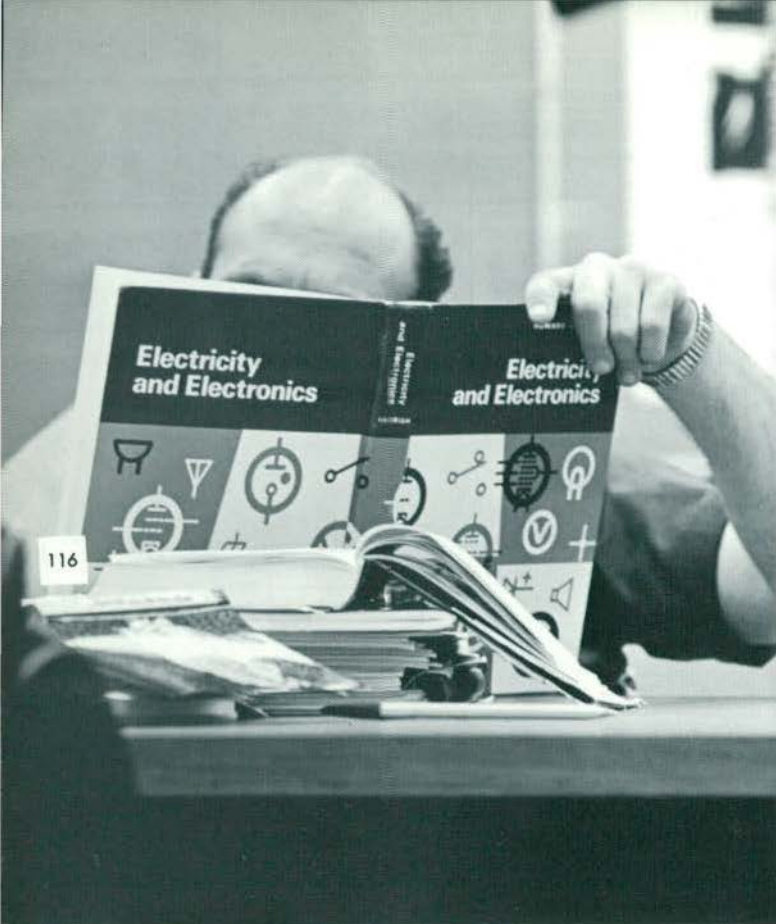

Many wonderful things seem to happen at Rackham.

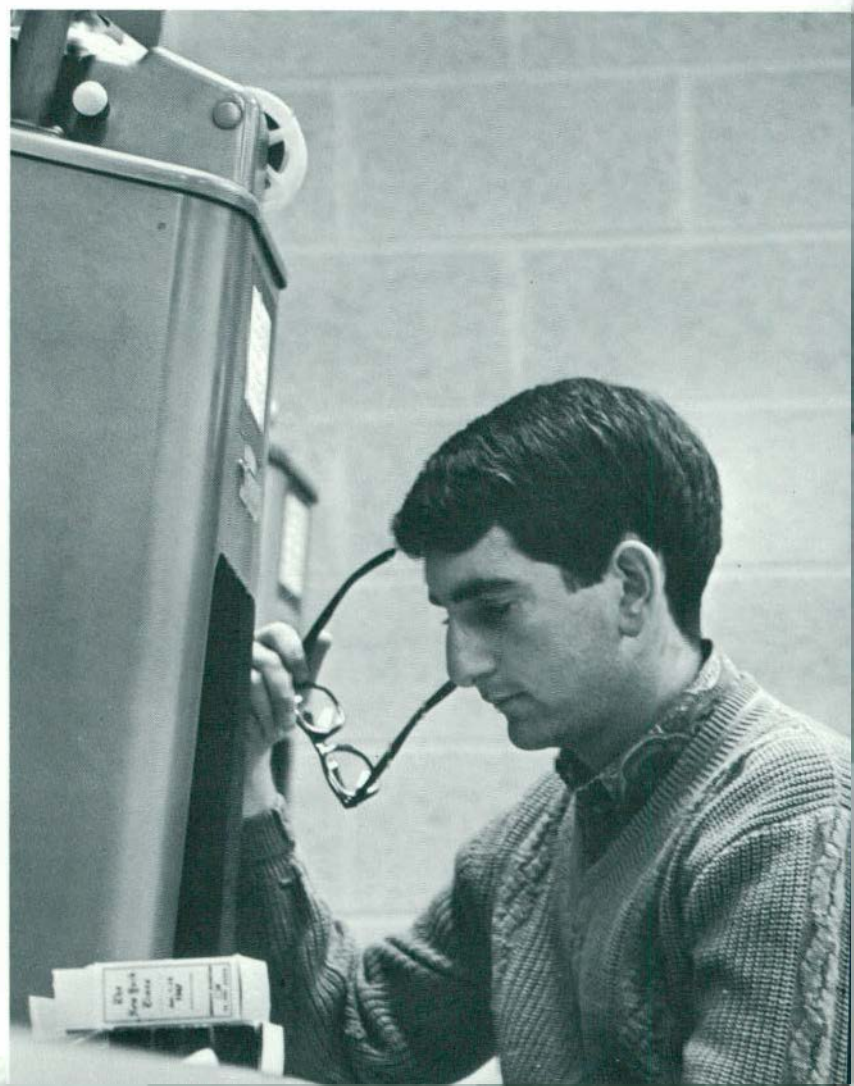

SPECIAL EDUCATION...
LEARNING TO GIVE

Since it has been open, the University Library has benefited thousands upon thousands of students, faculty, and even an occasional administrator or two. The library of course provides a multitude of up to date books and periodicals, but it goes further than that in providing the latest in audio-visual equipment, microfilming, study-aids for the blind, specialized study and class rooms and a host of many special projects. The arts are not neglected in the Library, as there is usually on display a fine collection of contemporary art.

Dr. Walfred Erickson, Library Head

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

For many years the Physical Education Department of Eastern Michigan University has turned out fine teachers, coaches, and recreation directors. The spacious facilities at Bowen Fieldhouse and Warner Gymnasium have provided the Physical Education students with the chance to grow in practice as well as theory.

BUSINESS

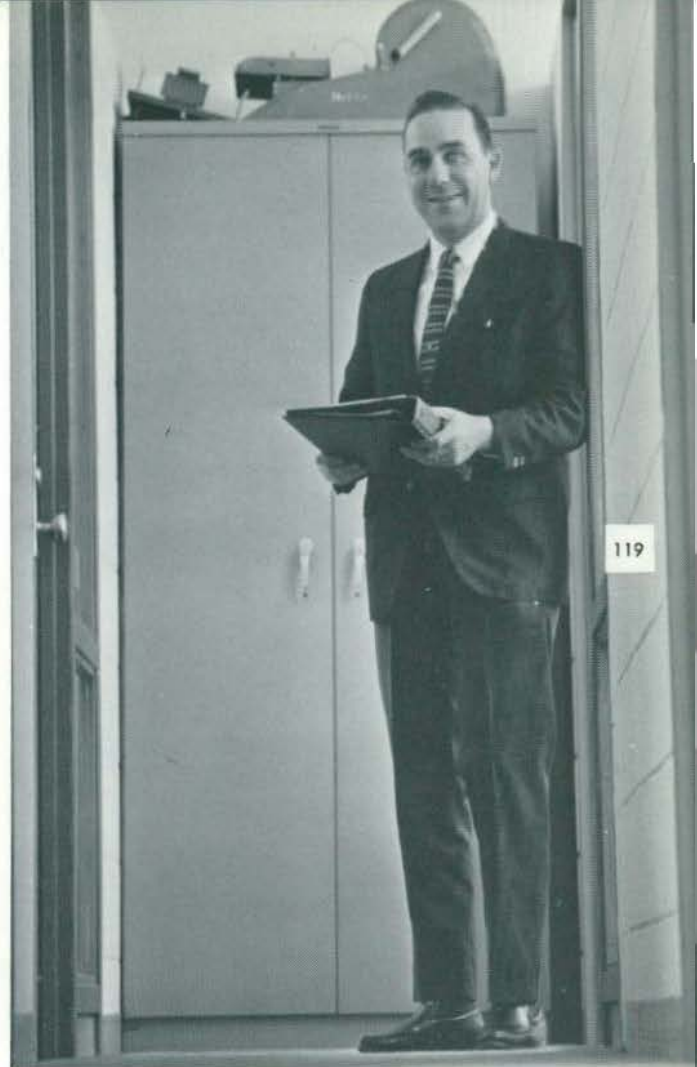

Eastern Michigan is known for the high caliber of its business students and they are in demand by the leading corporations and businesses. One reason for this is the incorporation of all of the newest teaching facilities and methods and the concentration on training as well as education of every business student.

Dr. Emerson Erb, Head Accounting and Finance

Dr. Robert Williams, Head, Marketing Department

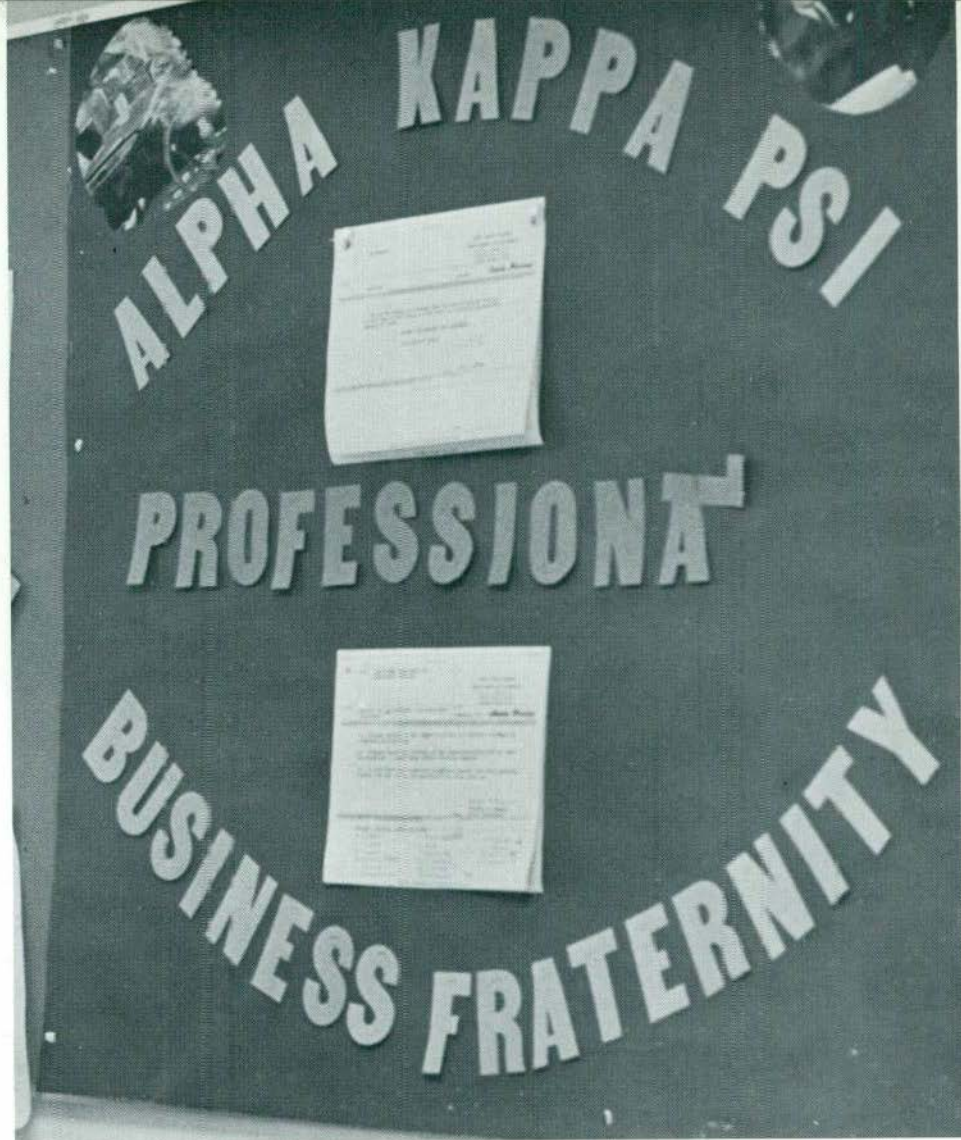

Dr. Charles Duncan, Head, Business Education Department

Dr. W. Oscar Collins, Head General Business.

The emphasis on outstanding business procedures and achievement at Eastern Michigan University has given rise to many formal and informal groups that seek to foster these goals. One of these, Alpha Kappa Psi, Professional Business Fraternity, has done much in the way of service to the community and the University. Its members are typical business students as can be seen mingling in the halls of the Boone Building.

Dr. Claude Shell, Head, Department of Management

Strict supervision and constant drill make Eastern Michigan Business students the most reliable. The many facilities for teaching the arts of all sides of the business world are constantly in use for practice and perfection.

Kingsly Calkins, Art. Dept. head

Opportunity to create from shapeless forms, dormant colors, and vivid minds is offered to all students through Eastern Michigan University's Art Department. The work of Eastern's art students and faculty is always on display in Sill Hall.

Howard Rarig, Music Dept. head

The department of Speech and Dramatic Arts and the Music Department at Eastern Michigan University have been developed over the years into what have become Eastern's outstanding contributions to the cultural enrichment of the entire community.

Thomas J. Murray Speech and Dramatic Arts, acting head

Clark G. Spike, Chemistry Dept. head
Richard A. Giles, Biology head

Eastern Michigan University offers the student many opportunities in the field of science. Its many practical laboratories aid the student in relating what he has learned in the world around him.

Dr. J. Henry Owens, Head Foreign Language Department

In these modern times nothing is so important than understanding one another. In serving this interest, the departments of English Language and Foreign Language are educating more students every year in the speaking properly of their own and other languages. Modern facilities aid both departments, and make them an attraction to prospective Eastern students every where.

Dr. Hoover E. Jordan, Head English Department

Dr. Robert F. Rue, Head, Math Department

The Math Department has been one of the fastest growing in the University. With the call for qualified mathematicians rising, the math department has expanded to meet its responsibilities well.

The Psychology Department likewise has grown both from an increased need for psychologically oriented social workers and the like, and from the growth within the department itself. Both the math and psychology departments use the facilities at the Computer Center to further their work. The Computer Center has grown along with each department.

Graduate students add experiences to the lectures of Dr. Kenneth Grinstead.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Eastern Michigan University's Graduate School program is one of the fastest growing in the midwest. Offering advanced degrees in many areas, the graduate program at Eastern holds promises for many students.

MILITARY SCIENCE

In striving to offer the student an opportunity in total education for his chosen field, Eastern Michigan University's R.O.T.C. program gives the student an excellent start towards a career in the military. After graduation, the R.O.T.C. student is commissioned in the United States Army as a second Lieutenant. Besides the class room situation, there are opportunities for social and recreational activities connected with the military life.

ALUMNI

Long after a student graduates from Eastern Michigan University, there will be opportunities to return to the campus to engage in social and academic activities. The Office of Alumni Relations has the job of co-ordinating these activities as well as such events as trips to Europe and tours of the Bahamas. The graduates of Eastern never lose the closeness to University life that they once had; they now share it with other graduates and friends of the University through the work of the Office of Alumni Relations and the Alumni Association.

EMU cheerleaders kept spirits soaring on a cold October day, to help the Hurons to another victory in a great season.

Sometimes with us, sometimes against us, the referees were always ready with the call.

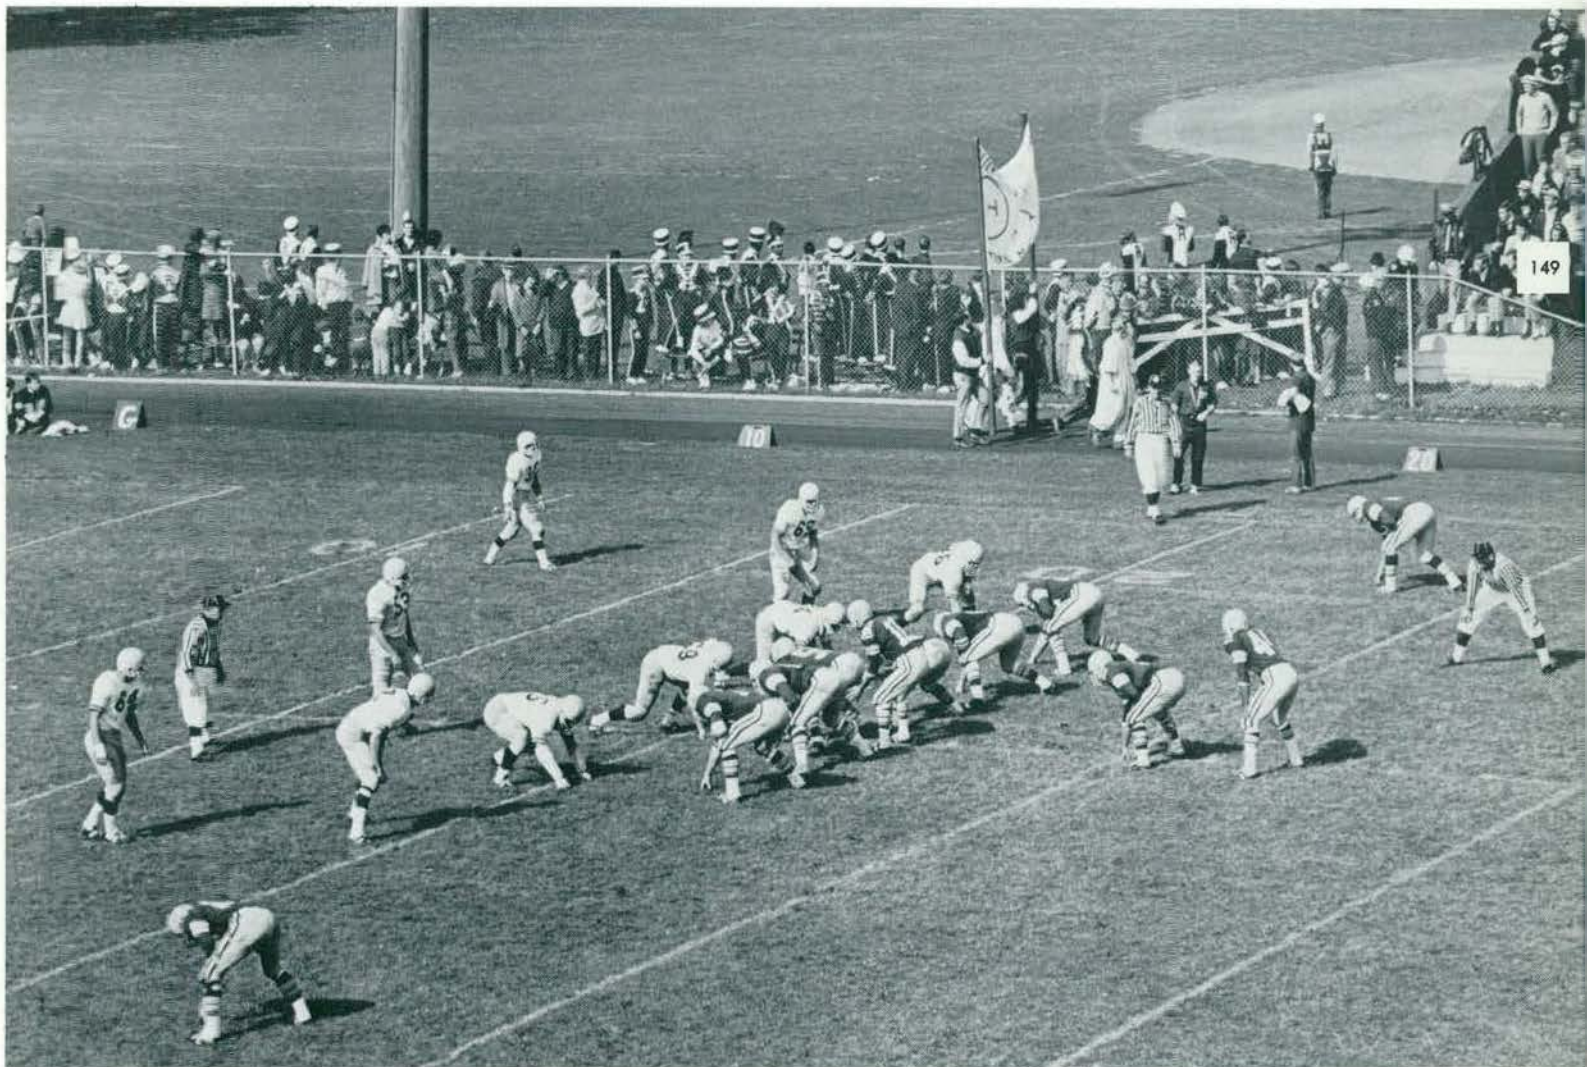

Tension is always present at a football game, whether in a cheer at the beginning, or in a referee's decision late in the game. Quiet thought and post-game tension could often be found in the Huron Locker Room.

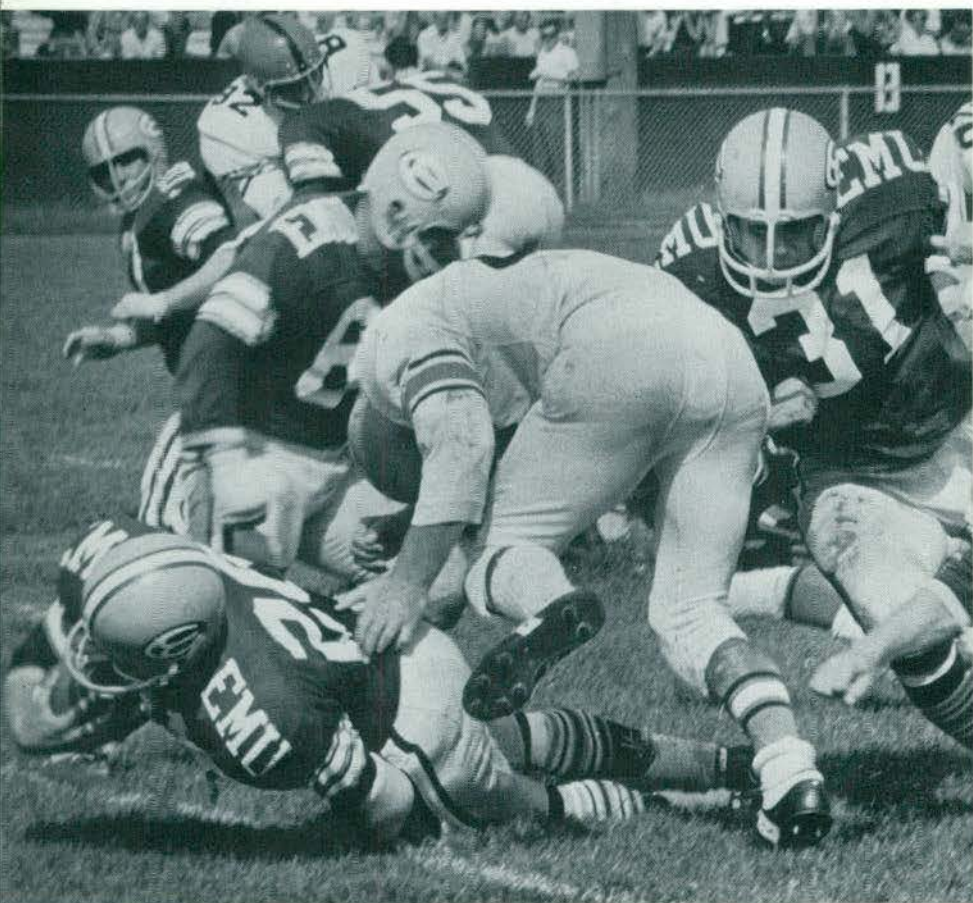

Homecoming Fans watched as the Hurons moved closer to another shutout in their 34-0 route of John Carroll University. Team effort, a spirited cheering section and a beautiful day combined to make this game one of the highlights of the best Huron football seasons in years.

Bottom: The fans wait as Coach Boisture and quarterback John Rinaldi plan a big play.

Every minute of each game was electrically exciting, for the Hurons could change matters in a flash with a change in plays, breakaway speed, a driving pass-reception, and their undying spirit. There was not a game in which the Hurons did not command respect.

BASKETBALL

How better could the Huron cagers be described than big and dynamic? This year's team is one of the best that Eastern has fielded in years. Height, speed, co-ordination, and depth are all there as the Hurons meet many of the best teams of the midwest in the most exciting season ever. With many of the team members being underclassmen, this team will be one of the best in the next few years if it isn't right now. Many new faces surprised the Eastern Michigan fans, but it won't be long before the freshmen subs will be the Little All Americans.

RIFLE TEAM SCORES HIGH

With a fine record in the past, the rifle team is looking forward to matches with Wayne State, Michigan State, Bowling Green State, and Toledo Universities. The team placed third last year in the Fifth Army Regional Match, a remarkable feat for a non-military school.

Butterflyer Ted Blakeslee swims his way to another first.

WRESTLING

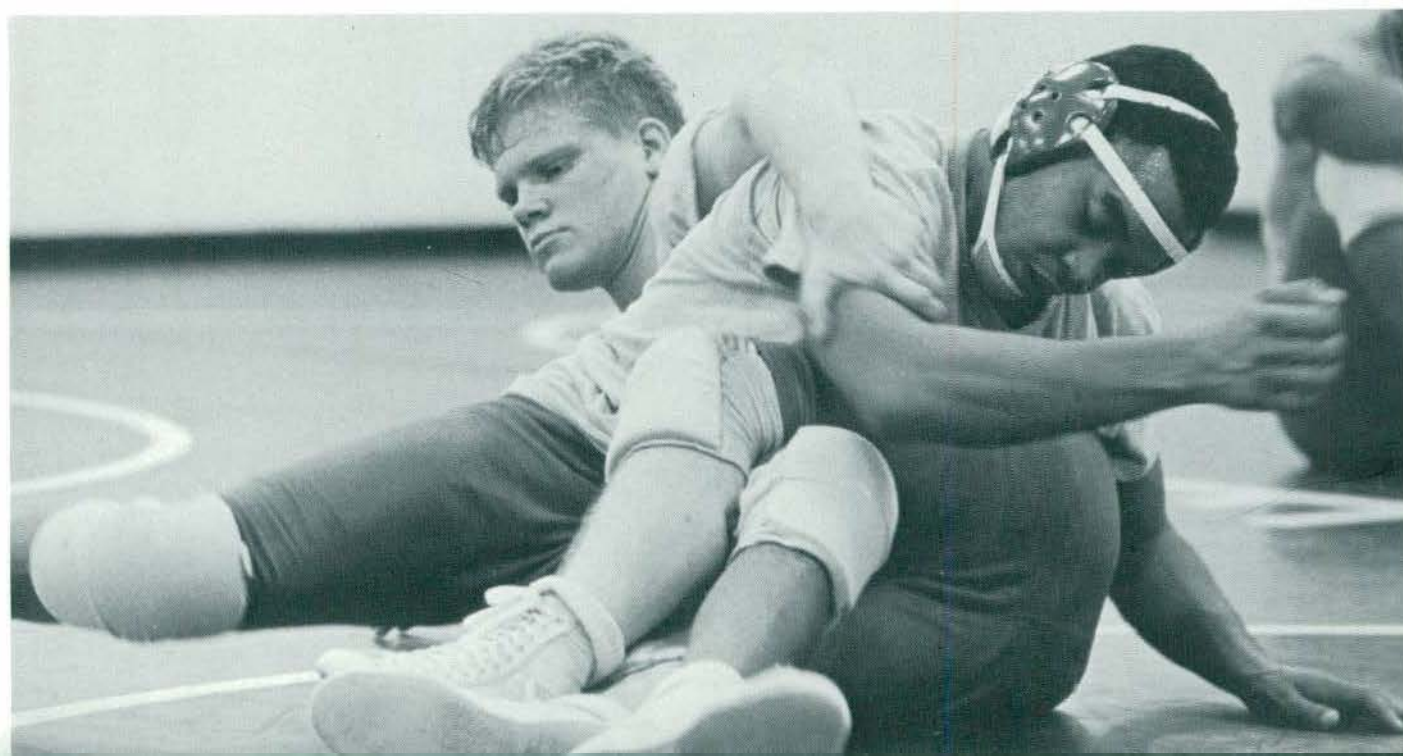

Coach Russel Bush's wrestling squad, faced with a schedule of formidable opponents, proved victorious in six of their matches this year. Scores such as 26-8 over Ball State, 23-8 against Bowling Green and 27-8 over Wisconsin-Milwaukee sparked the grapplers' season. The team finished second in the Ohio State University Quadrangular Wrestling Meet and third in the Michigan State University Quadrangular Meet. Opponents for the EMU season included three Big Ten schools and four Mid-American Conference teams. Only three of the meets were hosted by the Huron squad.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Intramural events sponsored by the athletic department at Eastern promote the spirit of competition between fraternities, sororities, dorms, and those living in off-campus housing through participation in football, basketball, bowling and volleyball. Competition is strong for each of these groups as they vie for first place.

STUDENT SENATE AND STUDENT COURT OFFER OPPORTUNITIES FOR RESPONSIBILITY

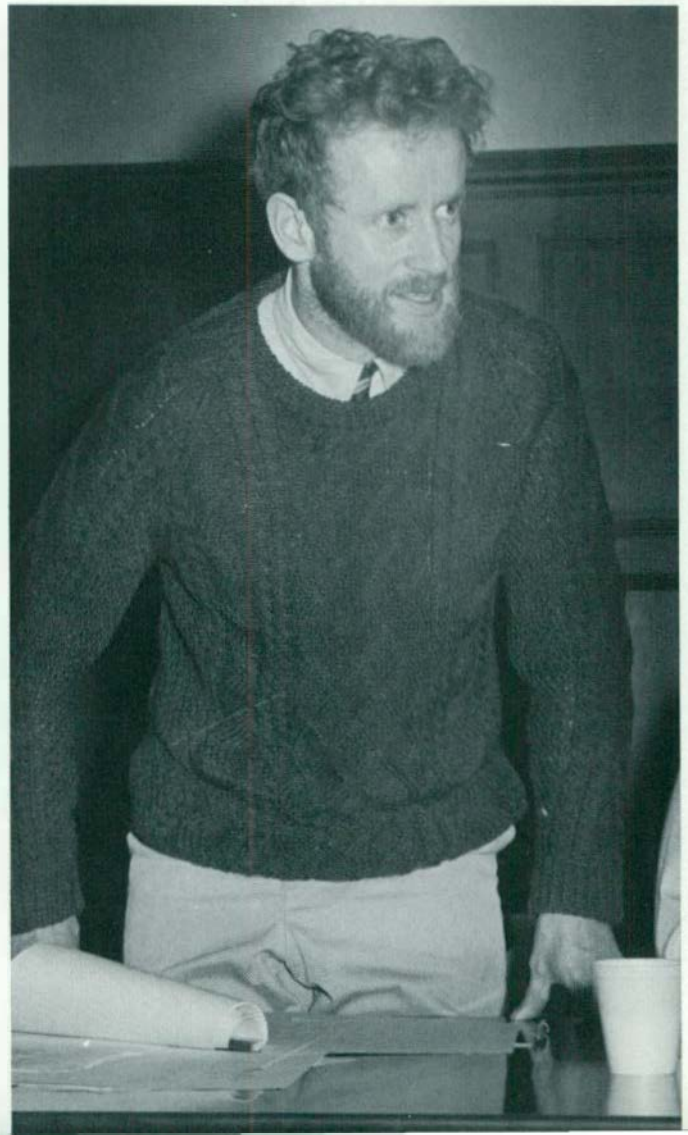

Student Senate is the highest student governing body on Eastern's campus. The senate is made up of representatives from each residence hall and from the off-campus population. These senators, wise in the ways of real politics, pass legislation on student problems and programs. The senate meeting is usually the scene of violent debate followed by a coffee break. Spark'ing wit and brilliant parliamentary moves highlight each meeting.

CAMPUS SERVICE CORPS

Aiming to increase intellectual, social and cultural receptivity of each child in the program to his environment and to increase his ability to express himself, the Campus Service Corps works with children from nine Ypsilanti area schools on small group and one to one basis. These aims are pursued by the members of Campus Service Corps in their three programs, the Tutorial program, with an emphasis on academic skills, the Cultural Enrichment program, improving the child's environmental orientation, and the Lead-A-Hand program, providing healthy interpersonal relationships for the children.

The Panhellenic Council is the association of sorority women that holds the responsibility of coordinating the activities of the sororities on campus, and setting the guidelines that lead to a stronger sorority system at Eastern Michigan University.

The Interfraternity Council serves to meet the needs of the expanding fraternity system at Eastern Michigan University. Working with and through all fraternities, the I.F.C. is a valuable link in the chain of relations between the fraternities, the University and the community of Ypsilanti.

The Xi chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha was established in 1949 on the campus of Eastern Michigan University. Such civic affairs as volunteer work at Beyer Hospital and the local Red Cross constitute services offered by these sisters. Once a year a scholarship is awarded to a deserving high school student. Highlighting their year was the AKABAILE, a formal dance presented in the spring.

AOPI's sing their way into your heart at the annual Christmas Sing.

AOPI

The women of Alpha Omicron Pi became enthusiastically involved with university activities as well as those associated with the Greek life, winning first place with their float at Homecoming. Throughout the year their bond of sisterhood has become closer through sorority weekend, Saturday morning breakfasts, and Greek Week activities.

ΑΣΤ

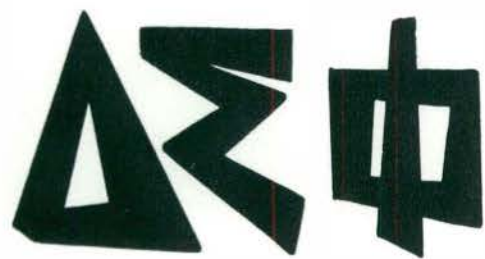

Alpha Sigma Tau is a national sorority founded here on November 4, 1899. It holds the honor of being the original chapter in this national sorority. Among their social activities are Founder's Day luncheon, participation in the Christmas sing, and an annual Candelight Ball which is held in the spring. At the Candelight Ball it is traditional to pass on their traveling President's pin and to the best pledge, a lavalier.

Delta Sigma Phi—winners for the second year in a row of the Homecoming Gung-Ho contest.

Founded on campus in 1952, the Gamma Tau Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi holds the distinction of being the first national chapter founded on campus. Aside from such social activities as holding parties for underprivileged children, participating and winning the Homecoming Gung-Ho contest, and holding an annual Sailors Weekend in the Spring, the men of Delta Sigma Phi assume much of the responsibility in leadership positions on campus.

KAY

In 1955, the Delta Nu Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi was founded on campus for the development of bonds of brotherhood and in service to philanthropic and social activities. As one of these services, they have presented food baskets at Thanksgiving to needy families. Their annual Sweetheart Ball serves as their main social event of the year, at which time their fraternity sweetheart is chosen. This year, the brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi sponsored a dance in McKenny with the men of Kappa Phi Alpha—"Salt and Pepper".

ΦΣΕ

1934 was the year in which the Lambda Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon was established on Eastern's campus in an endeavor to advance the spirit of brotherhood. Aside from participation in Greek Week activities, the festivities of Homecoming, and charitable activities for the underprivileged children, the men of Phi Sigma Epsilon have revived the spirit of painting the Greek Rock by delivering to the campus a rock which is twice the size of the one which is next to Strong. Another first for the Phi Sigs is the production of a calender which features sorority women as representatives of each month.

ΦΣΚ

As one of the newest and fastest growing fraternities on campus, Phi Sigma Kappa is making a name for itself. The men of Phi Sigma Kappa can be found working in many areas of campus activities and organizations, and have been enthusiastically involved with festivities during Homecoming, Greek Week, and Christmas.

ΣΑΜ

Although Sigma Alpha Mu has been established on campus less than two years, the Sammy's have made a name for themselves as being ambitious young men who know how to get the job done. Winners of Presidential Trophy in the 1967 Festival of Awards, these men know the meaning of working together in the name of brotherhood. Working with the UAB Board, these brothers pooled efforts and resources to bring Smokey Robinson and the Miracles to the campus.

ΣΠ

The Gamma Beta chapter of Sigma Pi fraternity, founded at Vincennes University in Indiana in 1897, was established at Eastern in May of 1961. Building a strong brotherhood among their members, the advancement of truth and justice, and the development of character are among their goals. The Sig Pi's started the year off with a new house and greater than ever enthusiasm that continued through the year in various campus and Greek-sponsored activities. The major event of their year's social calendar was their annual semi-formal dance, the Orchid Ball, which was held in the spring.

ΣΤΓ

With chapters scattered around the country, Sigma Tau Gamma has been in existence nationally since 1920. Founded in 1948 was Eastern's own Alpha Theta chapter. Activities in which they participated during the year were the inter-fraternity sports, broom ball, and homecoming festivities. Held annually each spring is the White Rose Ball, their main event on the social calendar.

TEΦ

The Phi Epsilon chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity was established on Eastern's campus on November 19, 1966. Although a new fraternity on campus the spirit of the "Tep's" has shown through in their many projects, among them a fund raising "money hunt" and their collections of over one thousand dollars for UNICEF. Still beginning traditions, the members of Tau Epsilon Phi attended their first dinner-dance this spring.

TKE

1955 was the year in which the Delta Pi Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon was founded on campus. Internationally, TKE is one of the largest fraternities. To the campus, TKE's have introduced the Greek Week Chick relays, sponsoring them annually. In the month of February, their Founders' Day dinner dance, the Washingtonian, is held.

Founded on Eastern's campus in 1960, was the Epsilon Mu chapter of Theta Chi. The founders of Theta Chi based their beliefs in their fraternity by establishing their ideals in the primacy of the Alma Mater, in the usefulness of their fraternity, and in its influence and accomplishments. This year, the men of Theta Chi made state-wide headlines by pulling a Huron Indian in their chariot from Ypsilanti to Detroit for the EMU vs. Wayne State football game.

Based on the philosophy that a yearbook is an historical document, the staff of the 1968 AURORA has endeavored to produce an annual which will bring to mind the memories and experiences of each individual who has been a part of Eastern Michigan University. Into these 280 pages has been poured an inconceivable number of hours of planning layouts, coping with frustration, and worrying over and meeting deadlines on the part of some eleven journalism enthusiasts. To these people I owe sincere gratitude for their patience, devotion, and verbal support, for it is these individuals who have made the 1968 AURORA a reality.

Also to receive many thanks are Dale Fisher and Mrs. Rose Mary Lawrence, two professional photographers who are responsible for the development of all photographs in the book and for the snapping of group photographs which appear. An expression of gratitude goes also to Delma Studios for their efforts in attaining the highest in quality for senior portraits and to Joe Hause of American Yearbook Company in Hannibal, Missouri for his advise and concern for our book. Not to go unmentioned are Dennis Holmes of Information Services for his artistic endeavors in designing our cover, and Publications Manager Ron Sesvold to whom I owe the salvation of my sanity.
